Role Responsibilities:

- Teaching the S1-S3 group on Sunday mornings.
- Teaching the S4-S6 group on Sunday evenings.
- Developing opportunities for engagement with our young people through the week to develop relationships and encourage them in their faith.
- Looking for opportunities to expand the youth work in the Church.

City Gates Baptist Church

City Gates Baptist Church, Edinburgh is in Barnton, 6 miles from the city centre. We are a small, friendly congregation that has a number of long standing home groups. We currently have four elders who manage the day to day running of the Church as well as the longer term strategic vision. We also have a team of 13 volunteers who currently lead our children and youth work. We have around 15 children and 9 young people. The Church enjoys doing life together in community, being intentional about our growth as people and serving one another and our wider community.
